The Florida Bar; Responsibilities included professional regulation of attorneys including presentation of cases to probable cause panels, presenting cases to referees and briefing and arguing cases before the Supreme Court of Florida.
- 1976-to date Private law practice, sole practitioner, in Tallahassee; General practice for a few years which morphed into lobbying before the Legislature on behalf of several health care associations. In the early 1980's I began to limit my practice to licensing cases, mainly cases before health care boards with particular interest in the Boards of Medicine, Osteopathic Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing and Pharmacy. Since concentrating my practice in health care licensing, I have represented hundreds of Florida health care providers in either the defense of their licenses or the application process. I have also represented physicians in federal DEA matters.
