Pre-Podiatry Information

- Podiatry Schools:
  - in the U.S.: 9
  - in Florida: 1 Barry University, Miami Shores, FL

- Minimal Requirements for Entrance: Most schools (including Barry) require a minimum of three years of undergraduate study (90 semester hours).

- Selection Factors: Applicants are appraised on the basis of their academic performance, MCAT score, clinical experience and personal interview.

- Admission Test: Most podiatry schools require applicants to take the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT). Registration for the MCAT is available at www.aamc.org/students/mcat. The exam fee is $310.

- Application Service: All U.S. podiatry schools are members of the American Association of Colleges of Podiatric Medicine Application Service (AACPMAS). Applications are available on-line at www.aacpm.org. A paper application can be downloaded at www.aacpm.org. This service allows the applicant to complete one forum which can be forwarded to more than one podiatry school. The processing fee is $160 for the first school, an additional $15 for the second school requested, an additional $55 for the third school requested, and $35 for each additional school.

- Letters of Evaluation: Barry University School of Podiatric Medicine requires 1 letter from a Doctor of Podiatric Medicine. The number and types of letters required may vary.
