Story Submitted

Big Bend Hospice Chaplains invite area clergy to break bread on Thursday, January 21, 2015 from 12pm-1pm at Big Bend Hospice's Tallahassee Office, 1723 Mahan Center Boulevard. Please join us for a complimentary lunch and presentation. 1 CEU will be provided. Dr. Alma B. Littles, MD, Senior Associate Dean for Medical Education and Academic Affairs at the FSU College of Medicine will speak about the Role of Clergy and Faith Communities in the Support of Health and Wellbeing from a physician's perspective. To RSVP or request additional information, contact Rev. Candace McKibben at candace@bigbendhospice.org or call 850-878-5310. Licensed since 1983, Big Bend Hospice serves the Big Bend region with expert healthcare, encouragement, hope, compassion and companionship to people with a life-limiting illness, so that they can complete personal goals and find spiritual and emotional peace. Big Bend Hospice provides each patient with a care team composed of the patient's own physician, a hospice nurse, home health aide, family support counselor, music therapist, spiritual care counselor and a trained volunteer. Services can be provided in the patient's own home, a nursing home, an assisted living facility, a hospital or at the Big Bend Hospice Margaret Z. Dozier Hospice House. Big Bend Hospice provides care based on medical need regardless of age, sex, race, religion, lifestyle or ability to pay. If you would like information about services or to volunteer, please call 850-878-5310 or visit bigbendhospice.org.
