Dr. Christie Alexander elected Florida Academy of Family Physicians President

Dr. Christie Alexander, an associate professor at the FSU College of Medicine, has been elected the 73rd President of the Florida Academy of Family Physicians.

The installation was held Saturday, Dec. 7, at the academy's 2019 Presidential Inauguration and Business Luncheon in Amelia Island.

Dr. Alexander is an associate professor in the Department of Family Medicine and Rural Health at College of Medicine.

After graduating in 2005, Dr. Alexander began her residency at the Tallahassee Memorial Family Medicine Residency Program, which she completed in 2008. She then went back to serve as the Medical Director at Patients First – the birthplace of her interest in family medicine.

She was also the first graduate of FSU's College of Medicine to come back and serve on the faculty.
