For more information regarding other non-credit hour fees, refer to the Student Business Services Website:
<http://studentbusiness.fsu.edu/>

3. Health Insurance Requirement and Health Insurance Subsidy for Graduate Assistants

ALL new graduate students are required to show proof of adequate health insurance, either purchased through FSU or show comparable coverage as determined by the Health and Wellness Center. For insurance information including coverage and cost, go to the Student Health Insurance website at <http://www.studentinsurance.fsu.edu> or call 850/644-6230.

The Graduate School offers qualifying graduate assistants a subsidy benefit towards the purchase of the University-sponsored health insurance. For more information <http://www.gradschool.fsu.edu/funding-awards/subsidy-benefit> or contact your department representative for details.

4. Financial Aid

Eligibility for student loans is determined by the completion of a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online. Any other form of financial assistance (e.g., graduate assistantship, fellowships, etc.) should be reported to the Office of Financial Aid as soon as possible, as these amounts may affect your financial aid award amount. For more information, consult the Financial Aid Website at <http://financialaid.fsu.edu/> or call 850/644-0539.

5. Residency, In-State Status and Academic Common Market

Procedures for obtaining residency are available from the University's Office of Admissions Website at <https://admissions.fsu.edu/Residency/policy/index.cfm/>. Those students who are US Residents but non-Florida residents, and are receiving assistantships, fellowships, or training grants are only eligible to receive out-of-state tuition waivers for one year. In order to be eligible for residency your second year, you must begin the Florida residency process prior to the first day of classes of your first semester. If you are already eligible to become a Florida resident, you must complete the residency application process no later than two weeks after accepting this offer.

Academic Common Market: If you are an out-of-state student, and your state of residence does not offer the degree program you seek at any institution in your state, and is a participating state in the Academic Common Market, you may qualify for in-state status. For details, consult the Southern Regional Education Board Website at http://www.sreb.org/page/1304/academic\_common\_market.html

6. New Graduate Student Orientation

New graduate students should contact their academic program for specific departmental orientation information. In addition to a departmental orientation, The Graduate School offers a New Graduate Student Orientation. The Dean of The Graduate School, Dr. Mark Riley, will welcome students. The goals of the orientation are to provide students with an understanding of what to expect academically and financially as graduate students; describe the professional ethics associated with graduate research and creative endeavors; and highlight FSU's academic and social opportunities and services available to graduate students. For information and registration information visit The Graduate School website www.gradschool.fsu.edu.

7. Duration of Studies and Outside Employment

The doctoral degree requirements should be met in approximately 5 years. Graduate studies should be engaged as a full-time endeavor except under extraordinary circumstances. Students who are supported on a full value fellowship or assistantship are considered to be fully engaged and are not permitted to hold employment outside of the program. Small, non-recurrent tasks for which compensation is received, such as occasional tutoring, are permitted, upon the approval of the program director.
