ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

JILLIANNE GRAYSON, M.D.
CLASS OF 2014
Psychiatry

Dr. Grayson is a pediatric psychiatrist who started her own practice, Grayson Psychiatry, in Charlotte, N.C. She completed her psychiatry residency at John Hopkins University School of Medicine. Grayson received a Clinical Excellence Award from the Children’s National Medical Center, where she completed her child and adolescent psychiatry fellowship. While in medical school, she was a Summer Research Fellow. Grayson is a member of multiple professional societies, including the American Psychiatric Association, the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, and the North Carolina Psychiatric Association, where she is co-editor of its newsletter.