Although students will not be on campus face-to-face during the Summer 2020 semester, FSU is still providing resources to ensure your academic success. If you have relied on these resources previously, please continue to use them during the Summer semester. If you have not used any of these resources, this is a great opportunity for you to become familiar with what they can provide at the convenience of your home. Take a look the resources made available to you in a remote format.

All of these resources can be found at the following link: https://news.fsu.edu/coronavirus/students/

ACE Tutoring

The Academic Center for Excellence (ACE) will still provide tutoring services via Zoom. These services include:

- Course-Based Tutoring
- Group Tutoring
- Study Skills Tutoring

Visit https://ace.fsu.edu/tutoring/course-based-tutoring-learning-studio for instructions on how to setup a Zoom appointment.

Reading Writing Center (RWC)

Tutors at the Reading Writing Center assist students throughout the writing process. The English Department is continuing to provide tutors online until face-to-face teaching resumes. Visit their website for information on how to make an appointment. https://wr.english.fsu.edu/Reading-Writing-Center/RWC-Online

Johnston Digital Studio

The English department will provide online access to consultants in the Johnston Digital Studio. Consultants who staff the Digital Studio can help brainstorm project ideas, provide feedback on the content and design of a digital project, facilitate collaboration for group projects and presentations, and/or explain the interface and nuances of a given program. Click the link below for more information on scheduling an appointment. https://wr.english.fsu.edu/johnston-digital-studio

Case Management

FSU’s Case Management works with individuals to provide emotional support, counseling, advocacy, and to identify immediate needs, making appropriate referrals to campus and community resources. Please reach out to Case Management if you are experiencing significant difficulties. https://dsst.fsu.edu/cms

Virtual FSU

The Division of Student Affairs is continuing to provide support to students as we make the transition to remote learning. Their website features a comprehensive list of resources available to students. https://studentaffairs.fsu.edu/virtualfsu/
We aim to ensure our students are as prepared, supported, and successful as possible. The move to remote learning poses new challenges and opportunities to provide you all the resources you need in a new adaptive format. Please contact the departments mentioned to schedule an appointment.
