IMS Seminars & Senior Capstone: Exploring and Preparing for a Career in Health

Path A: Enter IMS Degree as FTIC or Map Terms 1 – 4*

Professions

Freshman IHS1100

Patients

Sophomore IHS2121

Problems

Junior IHS3931

Prospectus

Senior IHS4501

Project

Senior Capstone IHS4901

---

Explore: values, skills, and interest

Align interests with academic professional aspiration. Learn about the different health care professions.

Explore: Patient Centered View

Understand the patient needs and using a team approach to provide Patient-Centric care.

Evaluate: Issues in Health Care and Medicine

Use experiences in healthcare settings to identify topics or issues of interest relating to one's values, skills, and interests.

Evaluate: Research in Medicine

Learn how to do a literature review, complete an outline for applied project, and finish final preparations for the Senior Capstone Course.

Execute: Research in Medicine Project

Create a project reflective of learning experiences that incorporates service-learning, research, and/or analysis of health care venues and delivery.

---

OR

Path B: Enter IMS Degree as Map Term 4+*

Preparation

Transfer (Augmented) IHS3122

Prospectus

Junior IHS3931

Project

Senior IHS4501

---

Enhance: values, skills, and interest

An accelerated version of the freshman and sophomore seminars for transfer students and major changes. Offering resources to complete prospectus and expand experiential learning opportunities.

Evaluate: Issues in Health Care and Medicine

Use experiences in healthcare settings to identify topics or issues of interest relating to one's values, skills, and interests.

Evaluate: Research in Medicine

Learn how to do a literature review, complete an outline for applied project, and finish final preparations for the Senior Capstone Course.

Execute: Research in Medicine Project

Create a project reflective of learning experiences that incorporates service-learning, research, and/or analysis of health care venues and delivery.

---

*IMS Mapping Coordinator determines both the entry point and term sequencing required for satisfactory progression.

Updated on 4/14/2023