Update from the Program Director's Desk

"The best preparation for tomorrow is doing your best today"

above and BEYOND

We appreciate our physicians and staff who brought lots of cheer to the clinic with their Halloween costumes this past Friday.

Drs. Anim and Wong dressed as Harry Potter and a Gryfindor student.

Dr. Kristen Dimas dressed as Dr. Rose Anne Illes.

Our supervisors Sabrina Mangione and Stacey Lewis dressed as the Minions

ANNOUNCEMENTS

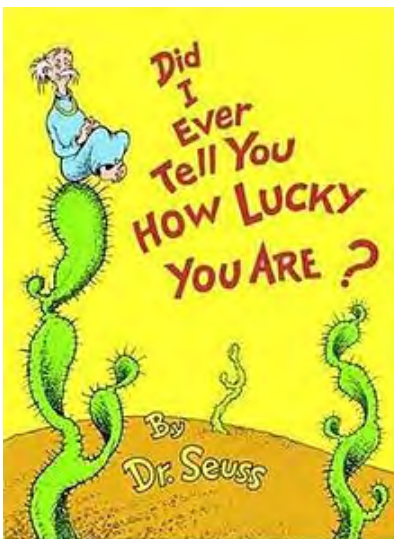

We are pleased to announce that Dr. Kristen Dimas will be our new Associate Medical Director. Dr. Dimas will be working in dyad partnership with our new Practice Director, Dawn Connelly.

Her special interests include health inequity and population health management. Dr. Dimas has always had a passion for serving the under-served and hopes to continue this work throughout her career.

Please join me in congratulating Dr. Dimas on her new appointment.

living life well

My focus this week is on contentment. I found the video below, based on the book by Dr. Seuss, to be an excellent lesson on this subject. Enjoy!

Dr. Seuss' Guide to Contentment | Neil Ihde | TEDxFondduLac

While gratitude is a measure of our perspective on the things we already have, contentment is a measure of our perspective on the things we don't have.
