

HELPING PATIENTS & FAMILIES PLAN FOR FUTURE DIFFICULT MEDICAL CHOICES: death panels or good medical practice?

Date: April 16th, 2011

Time: 9:30am - 11:30am

Location: College of Medicine, Thrasher Building, Room 1306

An optional breakfast buffet will be provided.

The Center for Innovative Collaboration in Medicine & Law will present a two-hour continuing-education program* aimed at physicians, other health-care professionals and attorneys titled "Helping Patients and Families Plan for Future Difficult Medical Choices: Death Panels or Good Medical Practice?" The program, part of the Alumni Reunion activities of the College of Medicine, also will coincide with National Health Care Decisions Day. Further information will be available on the center's website, www.med.fsu.edu/?page=innovativeCollaboration.home.

Breakfast Buffet

Public: $10, FSU MED Reunion Attendees: Complimentary

Assorted Pastries and Muffins

Fluffy Scrambled Butter Cheddar Cheese Eggs

Home Fries with Green Onions, Red Peppers and Russets

Patty Breakfast Sausage and Thick Sliced Bacon

Cranberry & Orange Juice

Water, Hot Tea & Coffee

*This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of The Medical Educational Council of Pensacola and FSU College of Medicine. The Medical Educational Council of Pensacola is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians and takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity. The Medical Educational Council of Pensacola designates this educational activity for a maximum of 2 AMA PRA Category 2 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.