

The Florida State University

Update: Health Law Cases from the U.S. Supreme Court 2016 Term

Sponsored by the Center for Innovative Collaboration in Medicine and Law

The Florida State University Center for Innovative Collaboration in Medicine and Law presents the discussion, “Health Law Cases from the U.S. Supreme Court 2016 Term,” facilitated by Center director, Marshall Kapp

Wednesday, July 6, 2016, Noon - 1:00 P.M.

Florida State University

College of Medicine, Room 1306

1115 W. Call St.

Tallahassee, FL 32306

This event is open to the public and free to attend. It will be live-streamed—beginning five minutes before start time—and recorded for later viewing. The live-stream and recording can both be found at <http://lectures.med.fsu.edu>. Lunch will be provided.

For more information, contact:

Nicholas Breeding

Center for Innovative Collaboration in Medicine and Law

Phone: 850-645-9473

Email: nicholas.breeding@med.fsu.edu

Supreme Court Cases

- Zubic v. Burwell (Affordable Care Act mandate that employers provide insurance for contraceptives)
- Universal Health Services v. U.S. (interpretation of the federal False Claims Act in a case involving false Medicaid claims)
- Luis v. U.S. (freezing of financial assets in a case involving a fraud prosecution of a home health agency)
- Whole Woman’s Health v. Hellerstedt (legality of Texas abortion statute)

Bonus Cases

- Florida “Docs v. Glocks” case involving Florida statute limiting the right of physicians to ask their patients about guns in the home
- U.S. House of Representatives v. Burwell (testing the president’s authority to subsidize insurers for the losses sustained by selling individual policies on the marketplaces)