The Florida State University College of Medicine entered into an agreement with Winter Haven Hospital, part of the BayCare Health System, to develop a residency program in Family Medicine in Winter Haven. Plans for recruitment of the founding program director and the Family Medicine Clinic are underway.

Deans Day at the Capitol

Council of Medical School Deans

Dr. Joan Meek, Associate Dean, GME; Dr. Alma Littles, Senior Associate Dean, Medical Education and Academic Affairs

Medical school deans from across the state of Florida gathered at the Florida Capitol on Jan. 25. This annual event provides medical school leadership, students and residents the opportunity to discuss topics of importance with legislators, their staff and governmental officials.

Orlando DERM Aesthetic & Clinical Conference

Dermatology Residents Participate in ODAC
Medical, Surgery and Cosmetic Courses Offered

ODAC focuses on new uses for old treatments, incorporating new treatments, products and treatment lines, critical updates in diagnosis guidelines, as well as advanced techniques for enhancing surgical and nonsurgical patient outcomes.

General Surgery Residency Happenings

Clinical Lab in COM Biomedical Sciences on Bowel Anastomosis

On Dec. 6, residents were asked to perform a timed, two-layer repair of pig intestine. Following round one, Dr. Wade Douglas, program director, provided proper instructions on the procedure and had the residents repeat the timed exercise. Residents also were able to experiment with adhesive being developed for tissue sealing.

Presentation for Noon Conference at TMH

Dr. Paul Clark, general surgery resident, gave a thorough presentation on acute pancreatitis during the all-resident conference on Jan. 17.

Endo at Madison County Memorial Hospital

Dr. Douglas is now performing endoscopic services at MCMH. Douglas said, "The residents and students of the FSU College of Medicine will be offered the opportunity to gain rural experience while I perform endoscopy services at MCMH."
